About Me

---

Hey, I'm Cassidy Gamble!

I'm an MVNU Graphic Design student graduating in May 2026. I have a passion for information design and creating and implementing brand identity. I enjoy collaboration and fast paced environments. I love a good problem to solve. Most people would describe me as candid, practical, and empathetic.

Education

B.A. Visual Arts and Graphic Design

Mount Vernon Nazarene University, August 2023-May 2026

Double Major in Graphic Design and Art. This program provided valuable experience across information design, type and document layout, brand identity development, maintenance, and application on documents, business cards, web design, and more. A studio and collaborative critique dynamic allowed for real-world scenarios in design development, feedback, and revision.

Graphic Designer

Four G Financial Services

Creation and maintenance of brand identity and logo. Development and editing of print materials, presentations, website development, and digital content on an as-needed basis. This role involves maintaining consistent corporate brand identity across all deliverables to ensure proper communication of their values and mission. It includes management and maintenance of the Four G website. Communication and collaboration are key in this role as it is direct communication with the Four G Financial team.

2024–Present
Marengo, OH

Graphic Design Student Worker

Marketing Department, MVNU

Provided in-house graphic design support for the marketing department and campus partners through Wrike. Collaborated with a senior designer and project manager to produce print and digital assets while adhering to MVNU brand standards. Managed files in Box, incorporated feedback through iterative critiques, and ensured accuracy during proofing. Deliverables included print materials, digital assets, mail pieces, document layouts, and information design. Proficient in Adobe InDesign, Photoshop, and Illustrator.

2024–2025
Mt. Vernon, OH

Marketing Student Photographer

Marketing Department, MVNU

Attended campus events as assigned by the head photographer. This role required management of individual photo assignments including shooting, editing, uploading, and management of photos. This provided experience and success in time management in both attendance of events and in delivering final photos. Team coordination and teamwork with other members of the marketing department allowed me to learn how to work cross-functionally.
